

Season Miller (Head Start), Beth Mulewich (WellSpan), Amy Dailey, Bridget Schell, Vicki Corbett, Kathy Glahn, Subarna Sijapati, Carly Marshall, Curtis Walker, Betsy Wargo, Audrey Hess, Kim Davidson

- 1) Approval of February meeting minutes—no corrections/revisions.
- 2) FINI grant approval
  - a. Celebrate!
  - b. Review the proposal—sign-up in fall. Actual implantation Jan-April 2017.
  - c. Next steps—pending. Amy Dailey is willing to assist with assessment.
- 3) Carly Marshall and Curtis Walker- "Story Map" Presentation—evolving technology—Carly and Curtis showed draft maps of Adams County Local Foods Resource Guide. Could be accessed through ACFPC website. Several formats viewed—some allow more/less space for information. Group discussion provided feedback on formatting, information to include. Carly and Curtis will modify further and then forward link for FPC members to further review and provide feedback.
- 4) Chesapeake Food Policy Leadership Institute – April 12-14. See attached. Who would like to go? Audrey could go, Amy will check calendar.
- 5) Updates:
  - a. The Gleaning Project
    - i. Empty Bowls—Fri April 15 4:30-6:30 p.m.
    - ii. Under the Horizon Pottery—3-part pottery workshop to make bowls—registration open until Monday, March 7.
    - iii. Potatoes distributed through Ruth's Harvest with bilingual recipe cards.
  - b. Adams County Farmers Market Association
    - i. Kathy Glahn will speak at Farmers Market conference on March 10 to share about SNAP and Double Dollars, diversifying board with community partners—10 markets from central PA attending
    - ii. New Market Manager—Subarna Sijapati—introduced self at meeting and is eager to collaborate with the FPC in his new role
    - iii. Plans for the season
      1. Outlets—opening Saturday of Mother's Day weekend (May 7)
      2. New Location—on Lincoln Square Thursdays starting May 19
      3. Still looking for vendors—application online

- c. Healthy Options
  - i. Fundraising—Raise the Dough brought in $7, 389
  - ii. Registration and additional families—returning by Fri, 10 on wait list
  - iii. Coordinator—bilingual
  - iv. Aiming for about 100 families, pending funding
- d. Arts Council with HO Participants
  - i. Cooking—4 families currently involved in level 2 class
  - ii. Zumba—about 6 families currently participating in weekly zumba
  - iii. Betsy Wargo –intern Nikki Bennet available to help at the cooking class on Monday, March 7.
- e. Children’s Health and Nutrition Task Force
  - i. Change the focus in the restaurant program because weren’t getting good participation from restaurant. Instead, the taskforce will set criteria and will promote restaurant if they meet it.
  - ii. Subarna offered his expertise in the restaurant business.
- f. Painted Turtle Farm
  - i. Planning to Expand High Tunnel program in partnership with Amazing Heart Farm to give more opportunities for community farmers to grow in the winter.
  - ii. Applying to accept SNAP for the CSA
  - iii. Will have 22 families involved this summer.
  - iv.
- g. Healthy Adams County
  - i. Corner Store Initiative – intern starting May 7 to focus on getting produce into the Dollar Store
- h. Local Foods Guide
  - i. Updates and printing is needed
  - ii. An insert with updates for current guide is needed.
  - iii. Kim will work on these.
- i. Ruth’s Harvest Gettysburg
  - i. 233 bags being packed per week. Now at Lincoln, James Getty and Gettysburg Middle School. Now a 501c3. Siblings of recipients at the elementary school are first to receive bags at the middle school. There are now 10 at the middle school.